POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS.

Show Substantial Increase During Last Quarter of 1909.

Considerably more business was done at the local postoffice for the quarter ending December 31 than the similar one a year ago.

The receipts from the sale of stamps and other stamped paper were $6,544.73, and miscellaneous receipts were $212.39, making the fine total of $6,757.12, of which $2,333.33 was forwarded to the government depository in Washington.

The receipts for the corresponding quarter last year were: From stamps $5,146.71; miscellaneous $205.13; total $5,351.84; forwarded to Washington $1,873.32. The excess over the last quarter just ended compared with that of the last quarter of 1908 was $337.33.

The Christmas business the past year was very heavy and ever since the first of January the mail for local delivery has been unusually heavy and the carriers, both rural and city, have had a pretty tough time of it with the streets in such poor condition as they have been of late, to say nothing of the sidewalks.

in eastern Connecticut at the Congregational church in Putnam today. There is one chapter in Windham and one in this city, both connected with the Congregational church. Rev. William S. Board, pastor of the First Congregational church in this city, will accompany the knights. The forenoon session of the convocation will be devoted to the hearing of reports from the different chapters and in the afternoon the first degree of the order will be worked. Rev. E. F. Talmadge of Waukegan will preside at the convocation and Willimantic, Putnam, Danielson, Stafford Springs, Windham and Waukegan will all be represented.

W. H. S. to Play Trinity Second.
The Windham High school basketball squad has been practicing faithfully all week in preparation for its game with the strong Trinity college second team, which it plays in the M. C. A. gymnasium this afternoon.

Trinity is said to have a very fast aggregation and the local boys will exert themselves to the limit to stave off defeat. They have not been trimming in the past and they are determined to take the best form of the year at present. Captain Richmond Fisher, this lineup: Vanderman, R. F. Burns, R. Richmond, C. Jordan, B. Leonard, D. Downer and Green substitutes.

Judgment for Plaintiff.
Justice of the Peace E. J. Danahy Friday morning rendered judgment for the plaintiff in the case of A. A. Trudeau vs. Daniel Flaherty. The claim of $72 which plaintiff had against defendant was allowed.

A piano is under attachment to secure the execution of judgment, but a replevin suit was brought against the constable on the ground that the piano was the property of the defendant's daughter. This replevin suit was withdrawn Friday morning by counsel for the plaintiff. Attorney J. Kelley and Attorney Thomas J. Kelley and William A. King the defendant.

Hearing on Hanks Claim Postponed.
An adjourned hearing before Commissioner of the State of Connecticut to hear disputed claims was to have been held at Spring Hill Thursday, but owing to the bad condition of the roads it was postponed for one week. Two claims have already been heard and there are several more to be considered. The estate is insolvent it is said.

Want to Be Postmaster at South Killingly.

There will be two persons to take the civil service examination for the postmasterhip of the common council office when it is held at the Danielson postoffice this (Saturday) morning.

Hard Week on Rural Carriers.
The rural carriers will finish a week of the hardest kind of experience in covering the territory of the common council in from today's trip. It has been hard on the men and harder on the horses.

Arthur W. Loge, carrier on the route out of the Danielson office, spent the day in the snow and seven o'clock, which is hours later than his regular time for arriving after his trip.

No-School Signal Too Late.
It has been suggested that the no-school signal on stormy mornings be given at an earlier hour than is now the case. It is claimed that it is too late for the children who come here from surrounding towns to learn that there is a school closing.

Patients in Worcester Hospital.
Danielson persons were interested in the story of the fire at St. Vincent's hospital in Worcester this week. There are two patients from Danielson, recovering from operations, there.

Thomas Luby of Danforth, who has relatives in this town, died recently at his home there after an illness with pneumonia. He was thirty years of age. He had been a student of medicine, but was obliged to cease because of ill health.

New Engine Installed.
The new engine for the Danielson Worsted company has arrived and has been placed in the mill. About two weeks more will be required for the plant can resume operations.

Three Inches of Rain.
Fall During This Week's Storm—
Melting Snow Helps Streams.

The rainfall of Thursday and Friday added to the melting snow on the surface of the water supply. The fall rain has helped the streams along the Assawamuck and Quinebaug in developing power. The quantities of snow on the roads has also added to the water supply.

George C. Foote of Southbridge has been named as the executor of the estate of Margaret C. Dexter and it's months allowed for filing claims against the estate by Judge Oliver E. Getty.

Most of the Snow Gone.
After it had stopped raining Friday there was a covering of ice from four to six inches of snow on the surface of Main street. About all the snow has gone from this much traveled way, but it will still be here until some warmer days than those of the present week come along.

Briefs and Personals.
Miss Florence Danielson, who has been confined to her home in Danielson, has returned to Providence.

Margaret C. Dexter and it's months allowed for filing claims against the estate by Judge Oliver E. Getty.

Earl Wilby has returned from a visit with his parents in Providence. It is thought that Charles Miller and Andrew Williamson, who escaped from Brooklyn jail Sunday morning, spent one night in a barn on the road between Danielson and Waukegan.

Two Trainmen Killed.
Lake Shore Passenger Train Crashed Into Work Train.

Northeast, Pa., Jan. 7.—Two trainmen were killed and two others injured when the Lake Shore passenger train No. 23, the Western Express, crashing into a work train here at noon today.

The dead are George Koerner, engineer on the work train, Buffalo, N. Y., and Fred J. Chart, a fireman of Erie, Pa.

The injured were a brakeman and a fireman.

The passenger train, which left Buffalo at 6 o'clock this morning, was running about an hour and a half late.

The work train, carrying supplies for linemen making repairs along the Lake Shore railroad, was crossing from the road to the river when the passenger train sidetracked it. The passenger locomotive from trunk trucks were derailed and the other engine was overturned, plunging the engineer and linemen, who were riding on the engine, to the snow.

All wires are down, and information regarding the accident was delayed in transmission.

None of the passengers were injured, and after a brief delay the train resumed its journey.

FLEET OFF TO HAMPTON ROADS.
North Atlantic Battleships Pass Through the Narrows.

New York, Jan. 7.—The North Atlantic fleet, which was supposed to have sailed yesterday in the fog, passed through the Narrows and is en route to Hampton Roads, with the flagship Connecticut in the lead. The mist prevented the fleet from starting, but the fleet was seen from the shore.

Noank.—Miss Annie McDonald of Noank, who was visiting in Putnam, died at Noank.

PUTNAM

Funeral of Miss Olive Leasure—Body to Be Cremated—Invitations Issued to Massicotte-Lobby Marriage—Lodge Notes.

Funeral services for Miss Olive Leasure, who died in Putnam last week, were held at the Baptist church Friday afternoon. Rev. J. R. Stubbett officiating. A large number of operatives from Hammond & Knowlton's silk mill, where Miss Leasure was employed, attended the service. The body was taken to Forest Hills on an afternoon train, and will be cremated today (Saturday).

To Be Married on Monday.
At St. Mary's church Monday morning at 8 o'clock Miss Amy Laby, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Laby, and Alfred J. Massicotte of Webster will be united in marriage. A large number of invitations have been issued.

Lodge Notes.
One candidate received a degree at the meeting of Quinebaug lodge, No. 106, A. F. and A. M., on Thursday evening.

At Work on Legislative Souvenir.
William H. Taylor, who is very much improved in health, has resumed active work on his legislative souvenir, and has arranged the preliminary pages for the use of the printers.

Probable Burial Today.
The man who has been lying unidentified at the undertaking rooms of L. E. Smith since last Sunday, was not buried Friday, as was expected. The body will probably be buried today, however.

Drug clerks from this section of eastern Connecticut were in Hartford Friday to take the examinations given for those desiring to become registered pharmacists.

State Master L. H. Healy of Woodstock will be one of the speakers at the State Grange meeting in Hartford on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

The officers of the State Grange will be held on Wednesday morning. There will be a number of strangers from this section at the meeting.

Delayed Work on Block.
The cold and storm this week have delayed the work on the block of the Pelogin building on Elm street, but it is to be resumed as soon as conditions will permit.

Rivers Swollen by Rains.
An idea of the great amount of water that came down the West River during the past two days can be obtained by a trip down to where the trolley line runs through the Wheaton farm at White's crossing. Large areas of this level land was under water, and there were numerous places of confluence. The river rose rapidly during Thursday.

City Pays Its Bills.
Bills of the city of Putnam for December approved by the board of aldermen. Salary of health officer, $100; fire department, $444.50; street department, $383.54; court officers, $188.34; Putnam Light and Power company, $454.70.

New Siding at West Thompson.
A new siding is being put in for the Connecticut company at West Thompson. This siding, it is understood, is needed for use under the new arrangement in running cars. The new siding which is to go into effect at an early date.
